Dr. Shirmo and Dr. Eldridge have built an impeccable reputation in the area. One of their patients, D.H., a resident of Heritage Springs, Trinity says, "Dr. Shirmo and Dr. Eldridge are the most compassionate and competent physicians around. They are husband and wife and they are so caring while being so qualified... These guys really care for their patients and they are faculty at 2 medical schools, Florida State University Medical School and University of South Florida Medical School. They are just great and all my friends and neighbors think so too. I have sent them all to this lovely couple and they just love them. It's great to have young talented doctors that care about you, your family and friends."

Dr. Eldridge and Dr. Shirmohammad have also cared for some of the best athletes in the United States: They have experience with Division 1 college athletes in various sports, PGA Golfers, NBA athletes, NFL athletes, Marathon runners, Semi-professional Hockey, and most importantly the typical weekend warrior athlete found at every gymnasium, golf course and field.
